REPORT NO.

THE FOLLOWING REPORT WAS PREVIOUSLY DISTRIBUTED AS "CIA PRELIMINARY
SO DISSEMINATION NUMBERED PD-

FD-365, 384, 368

1. As of 10 September 1950 an artillery regiment had started to move south from Mukden to Antung (124-23, 40-09). The regiment is part of an artillery division of the 4 Field Army which participated in the "liberation" of Peiping but which returned to Mukden in the spring of 1949 for assignment to the Northeast Military District.* The division's equipment was captured from the Nationalist New 1 and 6 Armies.
2. On 24 September artillery, engineer and armored car troops, totalling 2,800 men from the "Special Army Group" of the 4 Field Army, left Hankow for Manchuria. WAN I (萬毅), commander of the special army group, is scheduled to leave for Manchuria in a few days.
3. In mid-September troops of the 41 Army at Huiyang (114-26, 23-05), under WU Hsing (吳馨), the 121 Division (41 Army) at Polo (114-17, 23-09) and the 122 Division (41 Army) at Hoyuan (114-48, 23-42), assigned to exterminate guerrilla forces in the area, were withdrawn and moved to Canton for transfer to Manchuria via the Canton-Hankow railroad. Their former positions were occupied by the Kwangtung-Kwangsi Column.
